

REGION V SYMPOSIUM CALL FOR PROPOSALS

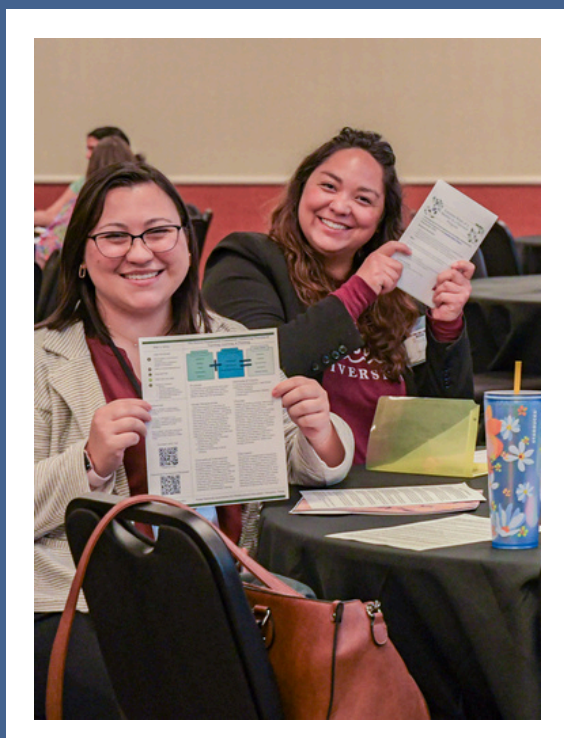

Building Inclusive Communities through Collaboration and Collective Action

The National Association for Multicultural Education (NAME) Region V is excited to announce our inaugural Regional Symposium, which will take place both virtually and in-person in Houston, Texas. We invite proposals for innovative and impactful presentations that reflect our theme of inclusivity, community, collaboration, and collective action. Join us as we foster dialogue, share best practices, and explore strategies that enhance multicultural education in our diverse communities.

SYMPOSIUM DETAILS

- Virtual Day: April 9, 2025 – Interactive Workshops & Speed Learning Sessions (via Zoom)
- Emerging Scholars Day: April 10, 2025 (in-person, by invitation only) – TXNAME Emerging Scholars Day
- In-Person Day: April 11, 2025 – Roundtable Presentations at the Holocaust Museum of Texas, Houston

PRESENTATION FORMATS FOR APRIL 9TH

Speed Learning Sessions (Virtual – April 9, 2025)

These dynamic, fast-paced sessions are designed for presenters to share impactful, high-level practices and initiatives that have enhanced their state chapters. Presenters will have 15 minutes to deliver their content, followed by 5 minutes for Q&A

Interactive Workshops (Virtual – April 9, 2025)

These 60-minute workshops provide attendees with hands-on, practical strategies for implementing multicultural education in their classrooms or communities. Workshops should be interactive, promoting active participation and offering concrete takeaways.

Graduate Student Virtual Poster Session (Virtual – April 9, 2025)

This virtual space will allow graduate students to share their research with recorded 5-minute videos and an asynchronous Q&A platform.

PRESENTATION FORMATS FOR APRIL 11TH

Roundtable Presentations (In-person – April 11, 2025)

Roundtable discussions are an excellent opportunity to explore innovative ideas and research in a collaborative, conversational format. Each table will host discussions around specific topics related to multicultural education, providing attendees the chance to network, share, and learn from one another.
